ABOUT LPPA

Overview

The Law & Public Policy Academy is a community of teachers, parents, and industry partners at C.K. McClatchy High School who are focused on providing students with unique experiences, which include exploring the broad range of careers within the field of law.

Powerful Partners

All of CKM's LPPA partners are focused on one thing: providing exciting opportunities for McClatchy students in the legal field.

CURRICULUM LPPA

The Law and Public Policy Academy offers students a unique opportunity to learn the foundations of:

LOCAL, STATE & FEDERAL LAW

Courses are taught through the lens of the legal system.

Students will:

- Analyze & draft legal documents
- Study the history of the American legal system
- Learn the methods behind criminal prosecution

LPPA students learn in action as they participate in a wide array of projects and fieldtrips which include:

- Courtrooms • Law Schools • The State Capitol
- Local, State and Federal Agencies

They work alongside judges, lawyers, legislative aides, and lobbyists just to name a few!

The Academy inspires students to excel both in character development and in academic achievement as customized classes and college prep courses promote student success well beyond high school.
